Theodore Hatzipadelis, professor of Applied Statistics at the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki (AUTH), was scientifically responsible for the elaboration and actual drafting of this report.

Nikos Komninos, professor of Urban Development and Innovation Policy at the AUTH, collaborated with us on the overall planning of this report.

The following persons collaborated with us for the collection of data, the processing and presentation of the results:

Nikos Gregoriadis, graduate of a PTI on economy

Aleka Papadopoulou, Doctor of Operational Research

Eleni Tsakiridou, Doctor of Operational Research

For their collaboration in gathering data, we would like to thank: the General Secretariat of Research and Technology, the National Statistics Agency of Greece, the Organisation of Industrial Property, the Region of Central Macedonia, the Directorate of Tertiary Education of the Ministry of Education and Religious Issues, the Ministry of National Economy, the Research Committee of the Aristotelian University of Thessaloniki, the Educational Department of the Aristotelian University of Thessaloniki, the Secretariat of the Deanery of the University of Macedonia, the secretariat of the Technological Educational Institute of Thessaloniki and the ICAP corporation.